Do you feel safe at home? Does your partner ever . . .

- frighten you? try to control everything you do? blame you?
- isolate you from family or friends? humiliate you in private or public?
- push, slap or kick you? lock you out of the house?
- threaten to hurt you, other family members, friends, or pets?

If you can answer yes to any of these, you may be a victim of domestic violence.

It is not your fault! You are not alone!

Domestic violence happens, even in our congregation!
Everyone deserves to be safe!

For Immediate Help

Call the National Domestic Violence Hotline 1-800-799-7233/SAFE

The National Domestic Violence Hotline is free, confidential, and available 24/7. Language translation is available. Anyone can call. You do not have to give your name or identifying information to receive help.

Call your local police, sheriff, or Public Safety Officer or
DIAL 911 (where available)

Add local service provider information.
If there is no local information here, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline (1-800-799-7233/SAFE) and ask for services in your area.