

Checklist for Service Providers Reaching Out to Faith-Based Organizations Regarding Elder Abuse

☐ Briefly explain what elder abuse ☐ Call for appointment. Be aware is and that it affects all faith of holidays and service schedule. Check the community's website. communities. ☐ Learn appropriate etiquette for ☐ Ask about their experiences. Listen. Ask questions. O Cover your head and/or arms? ☐ Briefly explain your agency's • Women wear skirts? interest in keeping victims safe. • Wash your feet upon entrance? ☐ Suggest partnering with the • Take off your shoes? congregation. Ask what a O Men enter one door, women partnership might look like. another? Listen. O Usual mode of greeting (bow, handshake, etc.)? ☐ Plan a next step. Other considerations? • Ask for their ideas. ☐ Confirm time and location. Be O Invite this contact to roundtable or other forum? prompt. Bring resources (and symbolic gift, if you have one). O Plan another visit with additional participants? ☐ State your reason for the visit: O Invite this contact and others to a training or event?

☐ Send thank you note and follow

Other suggestions.

up on next steps.

For more information, please visit www.interfaithpartners.org or www.ncall.us.

many elder abuse victims turn need their support to help keep victims safe. Faith community to faith leaders for help. You leadership is critical.